We mark anniversaries and remember historical days. We celebrate festivals in the church and remember community celebrations. With Easter Sunday barely in the rearview mirror and the rest of the days of Easter continuing until May 19, spring seems to tiptoe into our days! The church will go forward for each 'what next' and each day to celebrate Easter.

This year, a remarkable thing takes place in the skies (or if you are reading this after April 8th, 'took place in the skies'). April 8, many people prepared for the event of a partial (90% in our region) solar eclipse. Around 3:20 in the afternoon and for 4 minutes, the sun is blocked by the moon as those of us on earth peek up (with our special sunglasses to protect eyes, of course). Only 15 states got to see this event until the next one in 2044. (You can see pictures and more information by searching on the computer for science.nasa.gov).

Biblically, some try to convince people that this is a sign of the end of the world. Beware of these people! First, we will not know when the end time will come. (Mark 13:32) Second, we can stay true and trust God in all things especially the grace and forgiveness given to us. (Hebrews 13) Study the skies any time in wonderment and give praise to God for all things! Imagine for a minute that 2,000 years ago, you looked up and saw the sun blocked out by the moon! The explanations would be lacking for years. Science today explains more and more of the skies with state of the art telescopes like the Webb telescope. Many explanations occurred like when to look for comets, why isn't Pluto a planet, look at the new moons for other planets!

As we focus on the lessons of the Easter season and remember the words of our Lord, keep our world in your peripheral vision. There is so much that is connected and still a mystery. Our faith calls on us to trust God and to keep going on the path that brings glory to God! While we are seeing and experiencing all the wonders of the world, let us be humble in our explanations!

In Peace,
Pastor Sue

GROUPS AT HOPE

The Women by Kristin Hannah Wed, April 24 at 1 PM Submit questions to Cindy Kocher

Women can be heroes. When twenty-year-old nursing student Frances “Frankie” McGrath hears these words, it is a revelation. Raised in the sun-drenched, idyllic world of Southern California and sheltered by her conservative parents, she has always prided herself on doing the right thing. But in 1965, the world is changing, and she suddenly dares to imagine a different future for herself. When her brother ships out to serve in Vietnam, she joins the Army Nurse Corps and follows his path.

As green and inexperienced as the men sent to Vietnam to fight, Frankie is overwhelmed by the chaos and destruction of war. Each day is a gamble of life and death, hope and betrayal; friendships run deep and can be shattered in an instant. In war, she meets—and becomes one of—the lucky, the brave, the broken, and the lost.

But war is just the beginning for Frankie and her veteran friends. The real battle lies in coming home to a changed and divided America, to angry protesters, and to a country that wants to forget Vietnam.

The Women is the story of one woman gone to war, but it shines a light on all women who put themselves in harm’s way and whose sacrifice and commitment to their country has too often been forgotten. A novel about deep friendships and bold patriotism, The Women is a richly drawn story with a memorable heroine whose idealism and courage under fire will come to define an era.
